Happy Friday, everyone! It is amazing how a touch of spring weather can energize and inspire. Our kids have been soaking in the warm weather. They have also been working as hard as ever. I saw some very high quality reports on Roman Gods from the 6th grade, beautiful thank you letters from the first grade, and the preschoolers used the different tools from a farm. Most importantly, our 2nd graders have completed their preparation and get to celebrate their 1st Eucharist this weekend! Mrs. Weismiller has told me that they are ready to receive the body of Christ. Words do not begin to explain how proud of them I am.

We have a busy week ahead for our kids. Wednesday we will have an early release day. Dismissal will be at 1:45. Also on Wednesday we will be hosting our annual Athletic Banquet. It is always a fun time to see our students celebrate the hard work and effort that they put into their seasons. Finally, on Thursday we will be hosting our second edition of McTeacher Night at the Greendale McDonalds. If you come through and eat at McDonalds (Drive Thru included) between 5 and 7, our school will receive 20% of the sales. The exciting part is that the teachers and staff will be manning the stations during that time. Come and hang out with us!

Another important date to write down is the day of our 8th grade graduation. The graduation will be May 29, and we are trying a new time. The ceremony and Mass will begin at 5:30 on that day.

I put this announcement in the bulletin last week. Please take some time to consider any ways you can use your talents to help St. Lawrence. The School Advisory Team is looking for chairpersons for the Spirituality and Technology pillars. If you feel called to help in either of those ways, please consider yourself invited to the May 1 SAT meeting.

Next week is the first week that Part 2 of the ISTEP is open. At St. Lawrence we will begin our testing the week of April 23 with the idea of completing make-up work on the week of April 30. I am confident in our students, and I know that we will be working hard.

Please remember to keep an eye on our weather forecast. It is supposed to be significantly colder Monday next week. While shorts are allowed, it will be chilly. Also, please remember to follow the guidelines on spirit day as far as shorts and pants. Students should be wearing jeans, basketball shorts, or knit shorts. Thank you for understanding.

Finally, many people have been asking about Father Peter. We did receive word that Fr. Peter will be back at St. Lawrence beginning this weekend. He is very appreciative of the prayers and support and is excited to get back into the community. -Michael Odar
