

Dear Parents:

I would like to thank everyone who made our Open House such a success. We had a really nice turn-out and we have received some extremely positive feedback. This week has been very special as we have celebrated Catholic Schools Week. We are so blessed to have such a wonderful school family!

On Monday, we had visitors from the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Superintendent Gina Fleming, along with assistant superintendents Rob Rash, Michelle Radomsky, and Mary McCoy came to St. Lawrence to give a teaching excellence award to Mrs. Schmuelling. They also presented our first grade essay contest winners with their ribbons.

It takes a village to raise a child and it also takes a village to educate a child. Thank you so much for choosing St. Lawrence Catholic School!

God Bless,
Mr. Detzel

Academic Corner

Read Between the Lines – Describe the Setting – Pick a book and read a few sentences to your child (without them looking). Leave out words that name the setting. Example: “Sand stretched in all directions...cacti dotted the landscape.” See if they can infer where the story is set. If they can’t, try giving them a hint (“Where do you see lots of sand and cacti?”).
